

George Bush Isn't Listening To Us.

Neither is Congressman Dan Lipinski –
One of Bush's most loyal Democratic supporters in Congress!

Lipinski has voted for each of the Administration's war funding bills (now over $600 Billion)*, has consistently opposed setting any timetable to bring American troops home, and recently voted to allow the President to take military action against Iran!****

Believes it's now time to end this war and time for Congress to do it.

“Our men and women in uniform have met their responsibility with honor and distinction. They have done everything asked of them and most have or are serving multiple tours of duty.

It's time to end this war and turn our attention to solving the problems we have here at home. We should bring our troops home within one year and cap funding to make it happen.

Congress should stand up to this President, not simply wait for the next one. It's time to put America back on track. Blinely supporting a President, who thinks he can do no wrong (as Dan Lipinski has consistently done), won't make that happen.” — Mark Pera
