Know Why The Economy Is In Trouble?

"Because Big Corporations Have Spent Over $2 Billion To Influence Congress."

– Mark Pera

Big corporations have spent billions of dollars to influence Congress. What did they get in return? Trade deals and tax loopholes making it profitable for them to export American jobs.

Corporate lobbyists have a stranglehold on Washington... The result is higher costs for everyone in healthcare, drugs, gasoline and more.

What has Congressman Dan Lipinski done?

The answer is that Dan Lipinski hasn't done very much, other than support George Bush on nearly every important issue from the war in Iraq to an $8 Billion tax cut for Big Oil.

We need a Congressman who'll stand-up every day in Washington and fight for us.

We need Mark Pera...

An Assistant State's Attorney, Mark has made fighting corporate powers, that operate outside the public interest, the focus of his professional life... He has already fought corporations for polluting our drinking water and air. He'll fight to close the tax loopholes and trade deals that have left America with fewer jobs and more unsafe foreign products.

We Can Fix The Problems We Have,
But We Have To Fix Washington First!
